

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 7

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL
6 April 1982

Reagan fired * * * U.S. attorney in San Diego for publicly identifying an important CIA source in Mexico and Central America, the Justice Department said. The official, William H. Kennedy, had told a San Diego newspaper that a former Mexican official implicated in an international car-theft ring was a valuable CIA contact.